FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Door Engineering and Manufacturing Extends Warranties

Door Engineering and Manufacturing is now offering a standard three year warranty and optional five year extended warranty.

Their traditional warranty included all of the repair, replacement and labor for one year; the three year extended warranty offers an additional two years covering the materials for all repair and maintenance.

The five year extended warranty, available at additional cost, offers two years of repair, replacement and labor with an additional three years of material coverage for repair and maintenance.

Door Engineering and Manufacturing strives to ensure customer satisfaction and long use of their products. Contact manufacturer for full warranty details or visit www.doorengineering.com.
